

JAPANESE ART IN THE AFTERNOON

A SUNDAY @ THE CENTER

CELEBRATING
THE ART OF JAPAN & THE
CHERRY BLOSSOM FESTIVAL

ART ACTIVITIES

- Gyotaku - the Japanese art of fish printing!
- Watercolor Cherry Blossom Scrolls
- Origami - the Japanese art of folding paper into decorative shapes & figures

DEMONSTRATIONS

- Ikebana - the art of flower arranging; 1:30pm & 2:30pm
- Raku - a Japanese type of pottery firing; 3:00pm
- Japanese Woodblock Printing - by artist & BBAC instructor Nobuko Yamasaki; 1:00pm & 2:00pm

PERFORMANCE

Koto, a traditional Japanese stringed instrument. By the Miyabi Ensemble; 1:15pm & 2:15pm

FREE & open to the public

Thanks in part to underwriting from the Japan Business Society of Detroit Foundation

Sunday, April 10 | 1-3:30pm

No reservations required. Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult. Participants must arrive by 3pm in order to complete a project.