Art Birmingham
“The whole culture is telling you to hurry, while the art tells you to take your time. Always listen to the art.”
— Junot Diaz

Spring is such a time of renewal, and there is certainly no better way to refresh your creativity than with classes and workshops at the BBAC. We are continually impressed by the artists who choose to share their talent by teaching and who contribute so much to the process. The results are evident every day in our classroom studios and on the walls of the LaBan Commons Gallery where we are proud to stage exhibitions of student art.

Get inspired! Take advantage of free artist talks monthly at the BBAC and Anton Art Center. Drop-in to one of our monthly workshops — Sundays @ the Center and/or Seniors @ the Center. Tour the BBAC galleries, where different exhibits take place every six weeks or so.

The financial health of the BBAC, as well as our ability to continue and expand our ArtAccess programs, will always depend on the generosity of individuals and organizations who partner with our cause. As always, I want to express our appreciation for all who support this organization, whether through donations or purchase of event tickets and sponsorships.

Next up is Fine Art of Summer! As I’m writing, the date is not set but another fabulous house is waiting for our annual soirée. Please check BBArtCenter.org for all the details and join us!

Thanks to everyone who is a member of the BBAC family. Every single day, we are grateful for your presence and participation!

With my best regards,

Annie VanGelderen, President & CEO

Book Art: Heart & Soul Art Journal
Instructor: Kerry Yaklin
Art journaling is joyful and free-ing!
Do you remember the rush of coloring as a child? This class embraces exploration and creative play as a tool for relaxation, de-stressing, and personal insight. Students explore the effects that different art materials and techniques produce for conveying their individual ideas and feelings on guided topics each week. This is a mixed-media class where various techniques will be put to use in creative ways for unique visual pages. Some visual effects explored will include (but not limited to): drawing, painting, stenciling/stamping and collage. New skills such as the use of design elements, composition for emphasis, color schemes, & visual layering are utilized to play with creative expression of your distinctive artistic voice that resonates an original representation of you. In an open classroom environment students can expect to participate in group discussions about content, technique examples and demonstrations, and hands on experimentation. Come with an open mind and a curious spirit and watch your inner world take form before your eyes and to your hearts delight!

Introduction to Drawing
Instructor: Clara DeGalan
Drawing is the most immediate means of expression of awareness. It’s one thing to photograph an object — something else entirely to draw one. Successful drawing requires not only development of technical skill, but a refined understanding of the visual world, of how to transcribe that world into visual language. This course aims to develop skills in observational drawing, not only to technical proficiency, but to a sharpened and expanded sense of awareness. We’ll spend time observing and drawing the visual world in this class, with two major aims in mind:

• Developing the technique to easily and joyously draw by observation.
• Channeling those skills into a personal studio practice, opening the door to both observed and imaginative drawing practice that readily translates private vision into a visual narrative.

Painting: Introduction to Oil

Instructor: Clara DeGalan

This course aims to introduce students to the oil painting medium as a means of visual expression. Students will become familiar with the tools, techniques and materials required to successfully develop their own visual language in paint. Oil is a unique, powerful medium. Its beauty and sensuality applies itself as potently to representational painting as it does to direct surface texture—each informs the other. Every artist has to find their own way into it, then it grows into a challenging, rewarding, lifelong relationship between maker and medium. We’ll spend some time with art history, with traditional, foundational techniques, and with innovative ways to engage with oil paint in the Twenty-first Century. The genres of still life, landscape, figure painting, pastiche, and abstraction will be explored. The object of the course is to familiarize students with techniques that will enable them to translate their visual experience into the medium of oil paint, and to take that exploration to a more personal, instinctive place.

The sky’s the limit!

The only limit. At the BBAC, we do not accept that there are boundaries to limit anyone from access to art.

The BBAC invites everyone to explore art—in their own time & in their own way—and offers many paths to take...including some alternative & different approaches.

ArtBridge

Since 2006, this program has provided intensive art instruction & mentoring in preparation for college entry to talented, motivated high school art students from underserved areas.

Each teen spends one to three years at the BBAC completing core curriculum & elective art classes, interning with an artist or instructor & completing a digital portfolio for college applications. Many work as counselors at our summer youth art camps.

We see up to 30 students each year & every one of them completing ArtBridge has been accepted to college.

The program is free for participants, who are initially recommended by their teachers or principals. While ArtBridge receives intermittent support from foundations, the BBAC has remained committed to maintaining this important program with or without outside funding.

ArtBridge in Detroit

In 2016, the BBAC adopted a Detroit middle school that had to cut art programming in 2010. We provide a weekly curriculum with an instructor and materials plus an after school program—all at no charge.

For more information, visit: BBArtCenter.org or phone 248.644.0866 EXT. 111
The Art of Caregiving

While programs for individuals with Alzheimer’s & dementia continue to gain attention, the needs & interests of caregivers are often overlooked.

This program—FREE OF CHARGE—is geared toward providing the caregiver with an art outlet that gives creative relief from the daily routine. Sessions include networking, informal discussion & different art projects. No experience is needed.

Also provided: a take-home kit with supplies & materials reflecting the art session just completed. Caregivers can choose to share this with the person they care for or use it themselves.

Art of Caregiving sessions are scheduled every other Thursday through the beginning of June. Participants may choose a morning or early evening time. (Advance registration is required.)

Meet Me @ the BBAC

No prior art experience is needed for these art-looking & art-making experiences for individuals with early & mid-stage Alzheimer’s or dementia.

The program is open to groups from human service agencies throughout the region. The BBAC also offers sessions for individuals still living at home.

During a typical session, a group will spend about a half-hour looking at & talking about art from a current BBAC exhibit. The group then moves to a fully-equipped art studio to create something based on the art they have just seen. Each person leaves with their completed project.

Participation fees are nominal.

Studio 1

This is both the name of a BBAC studio classroom & a philosophical approach to “art for all.”

The BBAC & community partners—regional human service agencies—work together to provide art instruction for groups of individuals with a range of cognitive, physical & emotional challenges.

Studio 1 partners include JARC, Oakland County Children’s Village, Angels’ Place & Friendship Club.

Studio 1 was started in 2008 when the vision of “art for all” was just emerging, & remains a driving force behind our ArtAccess offerings.
Planet Lori Art Camp
Lori Haber Buckfire loved children & spent many afternoons doing art projects with her son Hayden. She passed away from ovarian cancer in 2010 when Hayden was five years old. Lori’s memory is being honored with an art camp in her name specifically designed for children who had or have a parent or a close relative with cancer. Each summer for one week the BBAC hosts Planet Lori Art Camp for 50+ children, funded by the Lori Haber Buckfire Foundation so there is no cost to the campers.

Once a month there are drop-in workshops designed as convenient, inexpensive opportunities to be creative & learn something new. Enjoy different, authentic art projects each month with all materials provided.

ACCESS:
• a means of approaching or entering a place
• the right or opportunity to use or benefit from something
ArtAccess @ the BBAC is an essential component of meeting our mission to provide high quality, relevant services to the community and region, regardless of geographic, physical, cognitive or emotional “boundaries”…
• individuals with mental and/or physical challenges
• young, talented students from underserved communities
• older adults with dementia
• those who care for the elderly
• busy people who benefit from an “art break”
Everyone is welcome. The BBAC’s vision statement is “art for all” & we have been celebrating that for 60 years.

BBAC ArtAccess funded, in part, by:

This scholarship is funded by Family & Friends of Jeannie Anderson.
