From the President & CEO

“The true sign of intelligence is not knowledge but imagination.” — Albert Einstein

This program book heralds the season's change and I'm sure we all feel the arrival of spring can't be soon enough! I look forward to fresh air and refreshed creativity.

There is an abundance of imagination displayed in the 2019 BBAC Current Student Works exhibit that is going up as I write this. Day after day, we see all the people who create in our classroom studios and it is so gratifying to see the amazing artwork that results from that time and effort.

BBAC exhibits consistently reinforce our mission to connect people of all ages and abilities with visual arts education, exhibition, and other creative experiences. We showcase the work of a great variety of artists, from emerging to mid-career to masters, which provides our instructors and students with virtual illustrations of techniques and compositions, and, at the same time, class shows are always included.

Thanks to those of you who share your imagination and creativity, who attend our events and exhibits, and who support the BBAC financially. We are grateful for it all!

DRAWING WORKSHOP

Drawing: Bootcamp 2

5-Day Workshop
w/ Armin Mersmann WArtist/ Instructor: Armin Mersmann

Join renowned artist, Armin Mersmann, and immerse yourself into an advanced one, week-long study of drawing and the art of observation. We all see the world around us, but do we really look, take in the forms, shapes and structures as an artist does? Just relying on our memory alone does not suffice. Light, shadow and details are hard enough to replicate when they are right there in front of you. If you have to invent them or try to go from memory, they appear even less convincing.

Drawing Boot Camp 2 adds to the experience of Drawing Boot Camp 1:

We will revisit couture drawing — this is a key skill in drawing, as drawing is a key skill for painting. We will spend two days on portraiture, along with perspective, advanced shading techniques, sighting techniques and understanding your personal artistic language. Every lesson in this class will be augmented by demos from Armin, along with PowerPoint® presentations and handouts.

It is not a prerequisite to have taken Boot Camp 1, but you need to have acquired good drawing skills from other classes.

This class is for novice and intermediate drawers. This class might be too intense for pure beginners, but feel free to call Armin if you have questions regarding prerequisite skills or questions on the content of the class at 989-430-5534.

Discussions include how to present and photograph art and other related topics that reinforce what schools are looking for in an admissions portfolio. Bring your current work on the first day for the instructor to review and develop projects to enhance your personal portfolio. Intermediate/ advanced high school students who are not working on a portfolio can enroll in this workshop to develop their drawing skills.

The sky's the limit!

The only limit. At the BBAC, we do not accept that there are boundaries to limit anyone from access to art.

The BBAC invites everyone to explore art—in their own time & in their own way—and offers many paths to take...including some alternative & different approaches.

ArtBridge

Since 2006, this program has provided intensive art instruction & mentoring in preparation for college entry to talented, motivated high school art students from underserved areas.

Each teen spends one to three years at the BBAC completing core curriculum & elective art classes, interning with an artist or instructor & completing a digital portfolio for college applications. Many serve on the BBAC Teen Arts Board and work as counselors at our summer youth art camps.

The program is free for participants, who are initially recommended by their teachers or principals. While ArtBridge receives intermittent support from foundations, the BBAC has remained committed to maintaining this important program with or without outside funding.

ArtBridge in Detroit

In 2016, the BBAC adopted a Detroit middle school that had to cut art programming in 2010. We provide a weekly curriculum with an instructor and materials plus an after school program—all at no charge.

The Art of CaregivingSM

While programs for individuals with Alzheimer's & dementia continue to gain attention, the needs & interests of caregivers are often overlooked.

This program—FREE OF CHARGE—is geared toward providing the caregiver with an art outlet that gives creative relief from the daily routine. Sessions include networking, informal discussion & different art projects. No experience is needed.

Also provided: a take-home kit with supplies & materials reflecting the art session just completed. Caregivers can choose to share this with the person they care for or use it themselves.

Art of CaregivingSM sessions are scheduled every other Thursday through the beginning of June. Participants may choose a morning or early evening time. (Advance registration is required.)

Meet Me @ the BBAC

No prior art experience is needed for these art-looking & art-making experiences for individuals with early & mid-stage Alzheimer's or dementia.

The program is open to groups from human service agencies throughout the region. The BBAC also offers sessions for individuals still living at home.

During a typical session, a group will spend about a half-hour looking at & talking about art from a current BBAC exhibit. The group then moves to a fully-equipped art studio to create something based on the art they have just seen. Each person leaves with their completed project.

Participation fees are nominal.

Studio 1TM

This is both the name of a BBAC studio classroom & a philosophical approach to "art for all."

The BBAC & community partners—regional human service agencies—work together to provide art instruction for groups of individuals with a range of cognitive, physical & emotional challenges.

Studio 1TM partners include FAR, Oakland County Children's Village, Angels' Place & Friendship Club.

Studio 1TM was started in 2008 when the vision of "art for all" was just emerging, & remains a driving force behind our ArtAccess offerings.

Planet Lori Art Camp

Lori Haber Buckfire loved children & spent many afternoons doing art projects with her son Hayden. She passed away from ovarian cancer in 2010 when Hayden was five years old. Lori's memory is being honored with an art camp in her name specifically designed for children who had or have a parent or a close relative with cancer. Each summer for one week the BBAC hosts Planet Lori Art Camp for 50+ children, funded by the Lori Haber Buckfire Foundation so there is no cost to the campers.

For more information, visit: BBArtCenter.org or phone 248.644.0866 EXT. 111

Once a month there are drop-in workshops designed as convenient, inexpensive opportunities to be creative & learn something new. Enjoy different, authentic art projects each month with all materials provided.

- March 12
- April 16
- May 14

ACCESS:

- a means of approaching or entering a place
- the right or opportunity to use or benefit from something

ArtAccess @ the BBAC is an essential component of meeting our mission to provide high quality, relevant services to the community and region, regardless of geographic, physical, cognitive or emotional "boundaries"...

- individuals with mental and/or physical challenges
- young, talented students from underserved communities
- older adults with dementia
- those who care for the elderly
- busy people who benefit from an "art break"

Everyone is welcome. The BBAC's vision statement is "art for all" & we have been celebrating that for 60 years.

Jeannie Anderson was a BBAC student many years ago. Shown below is a sculpture she made with her daughter as a model. The lovely little statue graces our hill on the north side of the building. Jeannie believed that everyone deserved art experiences; and with this scholarship her family will help make that possible for years to come.

This scholarship is funded by Family & Friends of Jeannie Anderson.
