From the President & CEO

“If you ask me what I came to do in this world,
I, an artist, will answer you:
I am here to live out loud.” — Émile Zola

We are always living out loud at the BBAC with year-round classes, workshops, art camps, events, and exhibits. In addition, there are our ArtAccess programs for a variety of audiences, including individuals with Alzheimer's or dementia, teens from underserved high schools, and caregivers of the elderly.

You can learn more about all our programs on our website — BBArtCenter.org — or by signing up for our weekly eblasts (if you don't already receive them). You can also stop by the office or phone 248.644.0866 — we are there 9am to 6pm Monday through Thursday and 9am to 5pm Friday and Saturday. I hope you are taking advantage of all we have to offer and are sharing all the BBAC opportunities with friends, family, and colleagues.

As I write this, we are preparing for Shop & Champagne, on December 4th and Holiday Shop, December 5th through 20th. We would love to see you at Shop & Champagne, one of the BBAC's two annual fund-raisers; tickets will be on sale in November. And do plan to acquire some great, original gifts at our Holiday Shop, which will feature work by more than 100 artists. It's a great way to introduce friends to the BBAC!

Wishing you all a creative and happy new year!

Donald Cronkhite / Artist's Statement & Bio:

The Romantics sought to seize each moment and explode it to its epic potential. In the same way, I have tried to use my painting to capture cloudscapes when they've reached their peak volume—the immediate prelude to the violence and release of storms, with all the emotion that lies therein. At the same time, I have tried to convey that sense of tension and expectation using colors, contrasts, and forms associated with realism and at a size and scale that brings the viewer into the storm, looking at it so closely that it becomes abstract and Expressionistic, directing the eyes to the exaggerated shapes and vibrant, saturated hues. In fact, the larger-than-life size of the paintings is a vital element of my purpose, which is to fill viewers' peripheral vision and envelop them in the movement and kinetic energy of a storm. The effect is both Romantic and hyper-realistic, ephemeral and concrete.

Donald Cronkhite received his BFA from Wayne State University and began his painting career after spending several summers exploring the galleries and museums of Europe. He currently exhibits in Chicago and Michigan and has several works in private and public art collections. He maintains a studio practice and continues to teach in southeast Michigan.

See page 36 for Donald's winter painting class.

DRAWING*

Classes Listed by Day of Week

Mondays

Drawing: on the Right Side of the Brain 1

Instructor: Kerry Yaklin

This is an introductory class geared at learning the basic skills for drawing. This theory approaches drawing as a learnable skill that eases as we modify the process of how we “see” in order to draw more realistically. Many skills required to draw effectively are located in the brains’ right hemisphere processing; not the dominant, analytic, left side. Projects are therefore designed to strengthen and practice these perceptual skills with how the right brain processes information. By strengthening these skills, you can feel the joy at achieving realistic looking drawings by experiencing the mental shift that produces accurate results. Items covered include: line, positive and negative spaces, proportion and perspective, light and shading, etc.

We will go over supplies in class one, so you don’t buy the wrong things.

Please do not buy materials until after the first day of class. We will be discussing materials during the first class—just bring a pencil and paper to take notes.

ArtAccess @ the BBAC = NO BOUNDARIES!

The Sky's the Limit...

The BBAC invites all people to explore art – in their own time & in their own way – with many paths to take...including some alternative & different approaches.

ArtBridge

This program is designed to benefit talented, motivated high school art students who come from underserved schools. Intensive art instruction and mentoring are provided in preparation for college entry. A typical teen spends one to three years at the BBAC, completing core curriculum and elective art classes, interning with an artist or instructor, and completing a digital portfolio for college applications.

ArtBridge is free for participants, who are recommended by their teachers or principals. While there is intermittent support from foundations, the BBAC remains committed to maintaining this important program with or without outside funding.

ArtBridge in Detroit

Since 2016, the BBAC has been providing a weekly art curriculum including an instructor and materials plus an after-school program to a Detroit middle school — all at no charge to the school or students. For six years prior to our arrival, the school had no art programming.

ArtBridge in Detroit is supported in part, by:

For more details on ArtAccess programs, visit BBArtCenter.org or phone 248.644.0866.

The Art of Caregiving®

The needs of caregivers — whether professional or family members — are often overlooked.

Our program — FREE OF CHARGE — is designed to provide an outlet with creative relief from the daily routine. Sessions include networking, informal discussion, and different art projects. No experience is required.

We send participants home with a kit containing supplies and materials reflecting that day's art session. Caregivers can choose to share this with the person they care for or use it themselves.

Meet Me @ the BBAC

Art-looking and art-making experiences for individuals with early and mid-stage Alzheimer's or dementia are offered for groups from human service agencies throughout the region as well as individuals still living at home.

In a typical session, we spend about a half-hour looking at and talking about artwork in a current BBAC exhibit, then everyone moves to the art studio to create their own artwork based on what we've just seen. Each person leaves with their completed project.

(Participation fees are nominal.)

Studio 1®

The BBAC, in partnership with human service agencies, provides art instruction for groups of individuals with a range of cognitive, physical, and/or emotional challenges.

Partners have included FAR, Oakland County Children's Village, Angel's Place, and Friendship Club.

Studio 1®, which began in 2008 when our vision of "art for all" was just emerging, remains a driving force behind our ArtAccess offerings.

For more details on ArtAccess programs, visit BBArtCenter.org or phone 248.644.0866.

Planet Lori Art Camp

Lori Haber Buckfire passed away from ovarian cancer at the age of 41. She was an artist, and passionate about children and helping others fighting the battle against cancer.

Each summer, for one week, the BBAC hosts Planet Lori Art Camp for 50+ children who had or have a parent or close relative with cancer.

The camp is financially supported by the Lori Haber Buckfire Foundation so there is no charge for the campers.

For more details on ArtAccess programs, visit BBArtCenter.org or phone 248.644.0866.

ACCESS =

a means of approaching or entering a place; the right or opportunity to use or benefit from something

ArtAccess @ the BBAC is an essential component of meeting our mission to provide high quality, relevant services to the community and region, regardless of geographic, physical, cognitive or emotional "boundaries"...

- individuals with mental and/or physical challenges
- young, talented students from underserved communities
- older adults with dementia
- those who care for the elderly (caregivers)
- busy people who benefit from an "art break"

Everyone is welcome. The BBAC's vision statement is "art for all" and we have been celebrating that since 1957.

Jeannie Anderson Scholarship

Jeannie Anderson was a BBAC student many years ago. Shown below is a sculpture she made with her daughter as a model. The lovely little statue graces our hill on the north side of the building. Jeannie believed that everyone deserved art experiences; and with this scholarship her family will help make that possible for years to come.

This scholarship is funded by Family & Friends of Jeannie Anderson.

Joshua Marks loved art as a way to visually convey his thoughts, feelings and emotions. He found great joy in sketching favorite subjects for those whose life he touched and encouraged others to "think outside the box" in order to get in touch with their creative side.
