From the President & CEO

“Great art picks up where nature ends.”

— Marc Chagall

I love spring! The emergence of colors in our gardens, the smell of the earth and the promise of new beginnings.

I am hopeful that as our lives are challenged by the next variant we might see a glimmer of light at the end of the tunnel. Art does that for methe light at the end of the tunnel....

I am never tired of being moved by a painting, warmed by the feel of a ceramic vessel, or fascinated by the creativity of a piece of jewelry. That was evident in our Current Student Works exhibition.

The BBAC has been my light and I hope that it is yours as well. As spring teases us with new life, our studios welcome all of you to explore a new experience, our galleries allow you to view the newest artworks from notable artists and our ArtAccess programs give those who need respite a creative escape.

The Birmingham Bloomfield Art Center is your home and we welcome everyone to be re-energized by the promise of spring and creativity during our 65th year!

With my best regards,

Abstractions in Clay

N

Instructors: Lisa Farris & Agustin Paniagua

New for spring term, this class will be taught by a duo team of artists — Lisa Farris & Augie Paniagua. Lisa and Augie are longtime friends who share a love of ceramic art. Students will have the added bonus of feedback and inspiration from two different but related perspectives. Through class discussions, group critiques and the sharing of work from the many contemporary artists pushing the boundaries of the medium today, this class will strive to help students find their own creative voice.

ArtAccess @ the BBAC = NO BOUNDARIES!

The Sky's the Limit...

During this pandemic, please visit
BBArtCenter.org
for updates about these programs.

The BBAC invites all people to explore art — in their own time & in their own way — with many paths to take...including some alternative & different approaches.

ArtBridge

This program is designed to benefit talented, motivated high school art students who come from underserved schools. Intensive art instruction and mentoring are provided in preparation for college entry. A typical teen spends one to three years at the BBAC, completing core curriculum and elective art classes, interning with an artist or instructor, and completing a digital portfolio for college applications.

ArtBridge is free for participants, who are recommended by their teachers or principals. While there is intermittent support from foundations, the BBAC remains committed to maintaining this important program with or without outside funding.

ArtBridge in Detroit

Since 2016, the BBAC has been providing a weekly art curriculum including an instructor and materials plus an after-school program to a Detroit middle school — all at no charge to the school or students. For six years prior to our arrival, the school had no art programming.

ArtBridge in Detroit is supported in part by:

The Art of Caregiving®

The needs of caregivers — whether professional or family members — are often overlooked.

Our program — FREE OF CHARGE — is designed to provide an outlet with creative relief from the daily routine. Sessions include networking, informal discussion, and different art projects. No experience is required.

We send participants home with a kit containing supplies and materials reflecting that day's art session. Caregivers can choose to share this with the person they care for or use it themselves.

Meet Me @ the BBAC

Art-looking and art-making experiences for individuals with early and mid-stage Alzheimer's or dementia are offered for groups from human service agencies throughout the region as well as individuals still living at home.

In a typical session, we spend about a half-hour looking at and talking about artwork in a current BBAC exhibit, then everyone moves to the art studio to create their own artwork based on what we've just seen. Each person leaves with their completed project.

(Participation fees are nominal.)

For more information, visit: BBArtCenter.org or phone 248.644.0866 EXT. 111

Studio 1®

The BBAC, in partnership with human service agencies, provides art instruction for groups of individuals with a range of cognitive, physical, and/or emotional challenges.

Partners have included FAR, Oakland County Children's Village, Angel's Place, and Friendship Club.

Studio 1®, which began in 2008 when our vision of "art for all" was just emerging, remains a driving force behind our ArtAccess offerings.

Planet Lori Art Camp

Lori Haber Buckfire passed away from ovarian cancer at the age of 41. She was an artist, and passionate about children and helping others fighting the battle against cancer.

Each summer, for one week, the BBAC hosts Planet Lori Art Camp for 50+ children who had, or have a parent or close relative with cancer.

The camp is financially supported by the Lori Haber Buckfire Foundation so there is no charge for the campers.

For more information, visit: BBArtCenter.org or phone 248.644.0866 EXT. 111

Drop-in Workshops

Sunday @ the Center and Seniors @ the Center are monthly workshops designed as convenient, inexpensive opportunities to be creative and learn something new. Different, authentic art projects are presented each month with all materials provided.

Please visit BBArtCenter.org for updates about these programs.

Sundays @ the Center
Funded in part by:

ACCESS =

a means of approaching or entering a place; the right or opportunity to use or benefit from something

ArtAccess @ the BBAC is an essential component of meeting our mission to provide high quality, relevant services to the community and region, regardless of geographic, physical, cognitive or emotional "boundaries"...

- individuals with mental and/or physical challenges
- young, talented students from underserved communities
- older adults with dementia
- those who care for the elderly (caregivers)
- busy people who benefit from an "art break"

Everyone is welcome. The BBAC's vision statement is "art for all" and we have been celebrating that since 1957.

Jeannie Anderson Scholarship

Jeannie Anderson was a BBAC student many years ago. Shown below is a sculpture she made with her daughter as a model. The lovely little statue graces our hill on the north side of the building. Jeannie believed that everyone deserved art experiences; and with this scholarship her family will help make that possible for years to come. This scholarship is funded by Family & Friends of Jeannie Anderson.
